DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-13 and 22-27 are drawn to a torsional damping apparatus, classified in class 188, subclass 378.
  - II. Claims 14-21 are drawn to a method of damping vibration, classified in class 188, subclass 181C.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the subcombination of the method of damping has separate utility such as damping vibrations in a broad range of apparatuses since the method claims do not specify steps that are strictly for use with the apparatus.
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
4. Upon selecting one invention for examination on the merits, Applicant is required to select one sub-species under said selected invention for examination on the merits. The sub-species are as followed:

Art Unit: 3683

Under invention I:

- Species IA                figure 2
- Species IB                figures 3 and 4
- Species IC                figures 5 and 5A
- Species ID                figure 6
- Species IE                figure 7

Under invention II:

- Species IIA                figure 8
- Species IIB                figure 9

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention and an election of a sub-species under said invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
